

Please DO NOT pass this measure! Existing copyright law already provides for protection of copyrighted content. The only purpose this measure will serve is to limit technological innovation and deny fair use access to materials. The answer to digital copyright management is not in creating new laws; rather, it is in the proper enforcement of existing laws. This measure will not stop the largest piracy operations. It will only serve to increase technology prices and drive otherwise law abiding citizens underground to exercise their fair use rights.